

Given a set $E \subset \mathbb{R}^2$, let \mathcal{L}_E denote the set of all lines that intersect E . The left column of plots above shows three configurations of points E_1, E_2, E_3 . Can you recognize the corresponding sets \mathcal{L}_{E_i} in the right column?